

FUND STRATEGY

K33 Assets I is an actively managed fund with the goal to maximise long term investor returns by capturing the value accrual of cryptocurrencies as an asset class. We do this by offering long exposure to sound projects with strong fundamentals in the crypto space.

Furthermore, the fund makes tactical adjustments to its allocations across the crypto asset risk spectrum depending on expected macroeconomic conditions.

Finally, we allocate a small part of our assets under management to discretionary trading, a mix of opportunistic event-driven strategies, employing derivatives strategies, short selling, arbitrage, staking and various investments in the decentralised finance ecosystem. The carefully selected and diversified cryptocurrency exposure ensures that the fund can excel regardless of whether it is Bitcoin or other cryptocurrencies that succeed.

FUND POSITIONING AND NEAR TERM OUTLOOK [SEPT 2023]

Our outlook for the next 6-12 months remains positive, with several important dates lined up.

- There is a high probability that BTC gets its first spot ETF in the coming 6 months and one could argue that the Grayscale victory made the probability go up further.
- Ethereum also has upcoming deadlines for futures ETFs and a spot ETH ETF application has been filed. Ethereum is gearing up for an upgrade that will have a positive impact on rollups that use Ethereum as their L1.

A spot ETF for Bitcoin is a very positive development and so far the market has not fully internalised the magnitude of the development.
